For more detailed information, please read the information here. System Requirements Windows XP, Windows 7, Windows 8, Windows 8.1The present invention is directed to a container which is capable of being attached to a motorcycle for use in conjunction with a motorcycle-mounted dispensing device. The present invention is also directed to a method of dispensing a flowable material from a container held in the hand of a motorcycle driver or passenger. The hand-held container and dispensing device combination provides a quick and easy method of dispensing a chemical such as insect repellent. Conventional chemical dispensing systems are deficient in that they lack protection for a driver's hands, inadequate protection for the hands of a passenger, do not provide convenient operation for the hands of the driver or passenger, and a dispensing system which cannot store the chemicals until they are needed. It is therefore an object of the present invention to provide a hand-held container which protects the driver's hands in the event the container is accidentally emptied while being held in the hand of the driver or passenger. It is an additional object of the present invention to provide a hand-held container which can be stored inside the vehicle when not being used, thereby saving space and preventing the containers from being stolen. It is a further object of the present invention to provide a hand-held container and dispensing device combination which is capable of dispensing different chemicals upon command by a user. It is yet a further object of the present invention to provide a hand-held container which is capable of dispensing different chemicals, such as repellents, deodorants, etc. in various combinations. The hand-held container and dispensing device combination includes a hand-held container adapted to be held in the hand of the driver or passenger, a dispensing device, and a plurality of connections for allowing flowable materials to be dispensed by the dispensing device when the container is held in the hand of a driver or passenger. What's new in Omega Racers:

#4 Shipyard #1 - The Trimaran Design The Trimaran's defining difference is a fairing around the cockpit that sits to the rear of the occupants to ensure the other portions of the hull are subjected to the most violent movements in rough seas. This, paired with a redesigned hull with controllable heaving lines, makes the Trimaran almost impervious to waves. The resulting slow surges of water, when the Trimaran is riding waves, results in rolling of the Trimaran. The Trimaran Hull Ships with hulls wide of in relation to their draft necessarily have increased stability, and the enormous flexibility of this design result in high speeds at safe sea states. However, these ships also have high drag making it difficult for them to maintain speed in rough seas. The new design of the Trimaran Hull is much smaller in the beam than the older design. The advantage is that it has a more elegantly rounded form that will appeal to those who do not like the clunky propeller or expansive bow form of the older design. The Trimaran Hull design allows the Trimaran to have lower freeboard than the traditional stern entry design. This increased the ability of the Trimaran to deal with seas and will allow for higher speeds in rough seas. The Trimaran Hull is another design innovation by the Global Shipyards Group - designed, built and delivered to customers world wide. The CraftsmanShipyard Content Bundle will feature 15,000,000 garmour CPU credits to craft new ships. The Bundle The NEW Breton Navy Battleship, the famous Lightest Battleship in the World, will be added to the new Billericay Ship Yard Content pack. The Breton Navy battleship will be 15 meters long, 2.5 meters wide and have a tonnage of 6 g with 150 stability ratings. The BRETON Navy battleship uses a hull of Construction Salve 66, State-of-the-art interior elements and Anti-collision sirens. The Breton Navy Battleship is available to all Free2Play ships also Shipyard #2 - The SMS Emden Custom The SMS Emden is a truly special ship, done in the style of the World War I maritime conflict between Germany and Great Britain. This is an asymmetrical figure of eight. The ship makes up on this aspect with
